

1000 ENTERPRISES

FOR CHILDREN-IN-NEED

Thank you for making it your business to care for children in need.

Your charity has transformed lives at Singapore Children's Society.

Despite the uncertain economic climate in 2009, the following companies have come forward to support the '1000 Enterprises for Children-in-Need' initiative by the Singapore Children's Society. Through your generous donations, we are able to provide refuge, comfort and guidance for more than 46,000 abused and neglected children, youths and their families. On behalf of these beneficiaries, we extend our heartfelt gratitude.

Singapore Children's Society is a non-profit organisation that helps protect and nurture children and youths of all races and religions, especially those who are abused, neglected, and/or from dysfunctional families.

'1000 Enterprises for Children-in-Need' is an initiative of Singapore Children's Society. The project aims to give at least 1000 small, medium and large enterprises the opportunity to kickstart or further their Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programme, with a modest $1000 annual donation for 3 years and adopt the society as their official charity organisation.
